Market Conditions

- The China economy grew 6.7% in 2016, the slowest in two decades but within the government's target range of 6.5% to 7%. For 2017, many economists believed that the growth rate will decelerate further. The International Monetary Fund is forecasting a growth rate of 6.5%, on the back of expectations for continued government stimulus.
- The strengthening of U.S. dollar has resulted in the erosion of the spending power of the Chinese travelers.
- As reported by China National Tourism Administration (CNTA), the volume of outbound tourism reached 122 million people in 2016, increasing at a slower pace of 4.3% over 2015. Outbound travel had grown by 9.3% in 2015 with 117 million outbound tourists over 2014. Forecast for 2017 outbound travel growth rate will maintain at around 4%.
- The Millennials FIT segment is growing with travelers seeking authentic local culture, food, thrilling activities and self-driving experiences.
- The ten-year validity extension of U.S. visa will attract more Chinese to travel to the U.S. However, many competitor destinations have been improving their visa policies and procedures to entice the same market.
- As the new leadership continues to combat corruption and regulate government spending, overseas business travel by government owned/affiliated businesses and institutions will be further tightened.
- Competition continues to be intense with countries and continental U.S. destinations investing large amounts on access development in the China market. The overall increase in airlift from Tier 1 and Tier 2 China cities made continental U.S. the main beneficiary in terms of providing more convenience and destination offerings to Chinese travelers posing direct competition to the Hawaiian Islands.

- Total arrivals to U.S. in 2017 are expected to reach 3.45 million according to the U.S. Department of Commerce.
- In June, HTC launched Romance In Excess - Millennial Couple - Celebrity An Yixuan & Chen Ronglian's Hawai'i Wedding. An Yixuan, is a famous actress popular among Millennials with 20 million Weibo followers. This Hawai'i wedding was reported by 185 multi-media channels. To maximize this promotional opportunity, HTC also worked with trade partners, Ctrip, Unique Way, Sparkle Tour and HH Travel, to promote Hawai'i Romance Packages during the same time.
