Hawaii Passenger Arrivals By Air

HONOLULU – Yesterday, 2,668 people arrived in Hawaii. During this same time last year approximately 35,000 passengers arrived in Hawaii daily, including residents and visitors. Yesterday marked 15 weeks since the state’s mandatory 14-day self-quarantine started for all passengers arriving in Hawaii from out of state. This table shows the number of people who arrived by air from out of state yesterday and does not include interisland travel. This data is from the Hawaii Department of Transportation’s (DOT) Mandatory Travel Declaration Form.
